2. Reasons

The Company left consolidated full-year financial results forecasts for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023 undecided because the calculation of appropriate and rational figures was difficult. The Company decided to calculate forecast figures based on information presently accessible, estimates and the like, and to publish those figures given progress with the close examination of the Fourth Medium-Term Management Plan.

In the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023, the Company is examining factors that include the effects of changes in e-commerce website management agency contracts, investments in high growth during the period under the Fourth Medium-Term Management Plan, and the cost of structural reforms aimed at improving the operating profit ratio. The Company expected net sales, operating profit and ordinary profit to surpass the previous fiscal year's levels, taking into consideration lively demand for advancing digital transformation (DX) among
